

SCOTT COUNTY KICKER.
Published every Saturday by WORKERS' PRINTING COMPANY.
Directors—P. E. Daugherty, E. C. Bowman, Henry Roth, Sol. Diebold, Phil. A. Hafner.
Subscription, one dollar a year. Six months, 60c. 3 months, 35c. Phil. A. Hafner, Editor.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.
The Kicker is authorized to announce Arthur A. George as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for assessor of Scott county, at the August primary election.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for sheriff of Scott county on the Republican ticket subject to the August primary.

THOS. E. HAWKINS.

The Kicker is authorized to announce Frank Anderson of Sandparks township as a candidate for the Republican nomination for assessor at the August primary.

The Kicker is authorized to announce Phil Simpkins as a candidate for sheriff of Scott county on the Democratic ticket, subject to the August primary.

THE GLAD HAND.

The curtain will fall on the first performance of the glad hand artists after the primary next Tuesday. The farmer and worker is it just now. The glad hand artist, commonly called the candidate, is out smiling and shaking hands with the "honey handed sons of toil." He knows that these are overwhelmingly in the majority.

Just now all of the office-seekers are "friends of labor." Are the working men's friends?—No, hear them tell it. All of them were "born on a farm." Not one of them would dare hand out his card in a community where labor organizations exist, unless that card bore the union label. Yet every tag on his back may bear the sweat-shop variety.

He pays no attention to the union label anywhere else—except on the card he hands to the organized worker. That he hands out with the union label on top. He wants the worker to see that first, and the name afterwards. And they go to the trouble of sending to St. Louis, Calico or else, where to get the cards as there is no organization of printers in the county.

Oh, it's a shell game for the gods! And the worker, who is generally pretty sure that he has the little pea located, always finds his shell empty when lifted. Just now they are giving you the glad hand. Put them in office and they will give you the boot.

It was the workers that put both Louis Goler and Bob Beck into office as a protest against "boss rule." And, ashamed of it as I am, I admit having helped to do it. And we had just a little more boss rule than ever.

CIRCUIT COURT ADJOURNS.

Circuit court adjourned Tuesday—thank heavens! If a drunken man should yawn and howl as these lawyers do, he would be arrested within 15 minutes for disturbing the peace. With the lawyers open you can hear them all over town.

And what sense is there to it all? Couldn't the jurors understand them better if they talked in an ordinary tone? Maybe these lawyers think the jurors are idiots.

The business of court during the past week was confined to civil suits—quarrels among neighbors. These are not of any general interest and I have been too busy printing the primary election ballots to give the court any attention.

One case that is of some interest to people about here is the case of Mrs. Burdette Egan against the Iron Mountain Ry. In which she sued for damages because a conductor got too frisky. I did not hear the evidence, but it was street rumor that she claimed the conductor pinched her leg. The jury awarded her $3,500.

FROM HEAD DISTRICT.

A crowd gathered at the home of Paul Elbert to celebrate the birthday anniversary of Miss Edna Bretzel Thursday evening of last week. Present were the Misses Alma Sander, Nellie Bates, Alma Roth and Margarette Sander, and Messrs. Alonzo Bates, Henry and Fritz Sander, Wm. Kimbrell, Karl and Walter Elbert, Fritz Held, Fred Sander, Ernest Roth, Wm. Sander and wife, Dave Held and family, Joe cream and cake were served and all had a pleasant evening.

Mrs. Henry Elbert and son, Walter, Mrs. Wm. Sprenger, Mrs. Emil Schlegel, Mr. and Mrs. George Hilpert, daughter and son Freda and George were at the Cape Friday.

Messrs. Herman, Musbach, Henry Elbert, August Elbert, Henry Pety, Emil Schlegel, went out to help celebrate Mrs. Mary Springer's birthday Thursday of last week.

The wind-storm of Monday evening unroofed part of Dave Sander's barn.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

The school board of District No. 58 asks for bids on the erection of a brick school building to be completed by Sept. 10. For plans and specifications apply to W. C. Arnold, District Clerk, Anceff, Mo.

HERE AND YONDER.

J. C. Davis of Sikeston got up rather early one morning last week and found that the electric lights wouldn't work. So he proceeded to dig out an oil lamp and lighted it. The lamp exploded and set the house on fire. He lived at the edge of town and rushed to the telephone to call for the fire department, but the telephone wouldn't work. Then he fired shots to attract attention and a neighbor turned in a fire alarm. It was some time before the fire department responded, and then the water pressure was so low as to make it almost useless and the house was almost completely destroyed. Yet I feel sure that it would be no trouble at all to get up a large preparedness parade at Sikeston.

Joe Trienen of St. Louis, a nephew of Wm. Trienen of Benton and John Vetter of Big Island, is down on a two weeks vacation and is constantly on the "go" visiting relatives. Among others he has visited his uncle here, his aunt, Mrs. Joe Scherer, near Keokuk, his cousins, Mrs. Lawrence Gange, Mrs. Otto Ries and Otto Vetter, to say nothing of the time he spent fishing on Big Island with John Vetter. He says he is enjoying his visit here.

According to a Cape paper I read the 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Lee came near being electrocuted last Thursday. The boy climbed over the poles that carry the line through which the electric current is transmitted from the Public Utilities Co. at Cape Girardeau. It seems he touched the wire and was so shocked that he started to fall but his foot caught and he hung head down until rescued.

The Kicker has been too busy to get the details of the misfortune that befell Carter Foster and family during the thunderstorm Wednesday evening of last week. The family reside about four miles below Benton. Lightning struck the barn and killed two horses and a cow. It is said that beyond a few cracks and splinters the barn was not damaged. The family was considerably shocked—especially three children.

J. B. Sparks writes from Sikeston that he has received a Kicker in a month. The paper goes there every week in the Sikeston bundle. On a recent postmaster Mr. Sparks there are many subscribers who read the Kicker for the good of those who pay their money.

Andrew S. Forbes died at Hot Springs, Ark. Saturday night of jaundice. He was formerly employed at the saloon at Lambertville and has been in poor health for some time. About a month ago he went to the springs in the hope of regaining health.

FROM NEW HAMBURG.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Legrand of Homer came over Saturday to spend Sunday with Mrs. Legrand's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Essner, of Ellis district.

Dr. and Mrs. Schindler and son Ewald, and Albert Goetz autoed to Cape Girardeau Saturday.

Frank Stiemely and family visited his sister, Mrs. Robert Brock, of near Benton Sunday.

Miss Sybil Diebold is at Cape Girardeau, this week, visiting relatives and friends.

Since the wheat is threshed the machine men are all busy haying hay and straw.

The dance at Herman Heik's Saturday night was well attended.

Last week Wendell Scherer bought a farm near Advance.

John Dohogne of Keokuk attended church here Sunday.

Matt Dumey was at Benton Wednesday.

Leo Westrich sold his farm to his nephew, Stephen Westrich, for $4,500.

Stick to the unmuzzled Kicker.

FROM CROSS PLAINS.

Chester Richardson and Miss Edith Farmer were married Tuesday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Derickson. Rev. Frank Baty of Fomfelt officiating. Oscar Grant of McMullin attended the wedding.

The ice cream supper announced for Saturday evening, July 29, has been called off on account of the 5th Sunday meeting service which is to continue for three days.

The New Home Sunday school has changed its time of meeting to 9:30 in the forenoon instead of the afternoon.

The Misses Viola, Nannie and Rosale Chosner returned Saturday from their visit to Bollinger county.

The Misses Stella and Blanche Gohl of Neely's Landing visited their sister, Mrs. J. A. Croft, last week.

Rev. B. F. Baty of Fomfelt spent the fore part of the week here with his brother, J. W. Baty.

Fred Cunningham, Mabel Norman and Boone Gibbons of Blodgett were here Friday.

Archie Woods and Frank Sherer went to Illinois Sunday to work in the box factory.

Several of the young folks attended the musical at J. H. Wood's Friday night.

Miss Nellie Hayden of Oran is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Chas. Baty.

The rain Monday evening was of great benefit to this community.

While Lunsford of Oran was here Sunday.

Friday Lynn Schreder was thrown from his wagon, breaking his neck. It is supposed that the team became frightened at a bicycle ridden by Ralph Anceff, Pete Prall, who was in the wagon, was considerably bruised up.

Wheat threshing is over. Some made as low as two bushels per acre, and note over 15 bushels. Don't forget the picnic on the 27th, 28th and 29th. A good time is assured all who attend.

Chester Daugherty of Anceff has been here the past week visiting his cousin, Urial Daugherty.

Homer Clark and Miss Lucy Brandt are slowly recovering from typhoid fever.

Mr. Cummins has erected an air dome in the city park for his show.

The dry weather is damaging the corn crop around here.

FROM ANCEFF.

It is rumored that the C. & N. railroad will improve its road from here to Cape by putting some forty thousand new ties under the rails. The road could do a good business, as many cars are transferred to the Cotton Belt.

Joe Minguax, the contractor, is installing machinery at Grayboro for the G. L. Moore Pressed Brick Co. to pump sand from the river. The sand will be hauled and used by the brick plant at Illinois.

Fifty-two new passenger coaches passed through here last week for the Mexican government. It puzzles some of us that the Mexicans would buy cars from a country as hostile as we are supposed to be.

Ed Haggins has returned from the Texarkana hospital much improved, but will not go to work for some time and will spend his vacation among relatives in Iron county.

If the hot dry weather continues another week, this part of the country would raise corn enough for home use.

Many of the trains of coaches used in carrying the soldiers to Texas have returned back east.

Louis Ziegler and family of Pleasant Hill spent Sunday with relatives here.

The families of Dennis Diebold, Ed Diebold, Henry Millerling, O. J. Dammann and Frank Compas, and the Misses Susan and Rosa Ressel autoed to Charleston on Sunday last.

Mrs. Mike Welter visited a few days with Blodgett relatives and friends.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Butch Logel the 19th.

Mrs. Mat Thomas was at Cape Girardeau Monday.

FROM ORAN.

Oran seems to be having more than its share of fatalities just now. Last week these items told of the death of Peter Dirnberger, who was run over by a Frisco train, and this week we have to report the painful injury of Leo Heisserer and the death of his little son in an automobile smash-up.

Mr. Heisserer is the riding boss for C. and A. J. Matthews and with his little son was driving about two miles below town along a drain ditch. Evidently attracted by a passing train or something, Leo let the car go into the ditch, where it upset with both under-neath.

The wind shield crushed the life out of the boy and the father was painfully hurt, but is recovering. Leo is the son of Clements Heisserer and a nephew of Vincent Heisserer, a former county treasurer, and Chas. Heisserer of Keokuk.

Candidates are as thick as fleas and just about as entertaining.

TAKEN AT HIS WORD.
He—I would go to the end of the earth for you.
She—Good-bye, Judge.
